Guidelines for Group Discussions.

1. Group Incharges will take their group in one corner and raise the issue with related questions. The subject is given to the group incharge in advance so that they can come prepared with questions and points to be discussed.
2. Opinion of people in the group is sought.
3. Disagreements are discussed and consensus is evolved, and noted as a recommendation.
4. All the recommendations against all points are noted in a sheet of paper and handed over to Mr Saxena after making the presentation in the time slot provided.
