Compendium of Satya Sai's works to be released today

Special Correspondent

HYDERABAD: Sri Satya Sai Organisations Worldwide (1965-2010), a compendium of a book and 12 DVDs considered to be a virtual encyclopaedia of Satya Sai Baba's mission, will be released in Prashanti Nilayam on Thursday coinciding with the Ganesh Chavithi.

Groundbreaking work

The work focuses on the groundbreaking work done by the Sri Satya Sai Organisations (SSSO) in various project areas across the world in education, medicare and sociocare. It would not only serve to broaden knowledge about the work taken up by SSSO but also deepen the understanding about Sathya Sai Baba's service to society, said a press release. It is a collection of work undertaken by the SSSO in the last 45 years in India and 135 other countries through text, images, presentations and audiovisuals that include several articles, poems and books.
