

Divine Prescription for Doctors by Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba

- Fill your hearts with compassion and serve the poor and needy. Sacrifice is the hallmark of a true doctor.
- There is no medicine more effective than a smile.
- Speak kind and sweet words to the patient; for the words cure the patients.
- Work happily and spread happiness to more and more patients.
- Doctors should administer the injection of courage and encouragement to the patients.
- As the Lord has Love and Compassion, the doctors too should have these Divine virtues of the Lord.
- Medicines on their own cannot cure diseases; it is Divine Grace that cures.
- When virtue increases, health improves.
- To put in sincere effort is the duty of a doctor; success or failure is God's Will.
- Think and feel that the service you perform to the patients is direct service to God.
- The help that you extend in good faith to your patients will be rewarded in course of time.
- Man has been endowed with the human body not for seeking his selfish ends but for serving his Fellow-beings.
- Cultivate awareness that the service, which Doctors perform for others, is nothing but service done onto themselves.
- Observe harmony of speech and practice, lest you mislead the patients.
- Restraint over food and life style ensure sound health of the heart.
- The essential mark of a hospital is its cleanliness.
- Hospital are meant to serve the poor and not to make money.
- You can charge the correct fee from the wealthy, but be kind and considerate in dealing with the poor.
